Deforestation

a) Deforestation illustrates our misuse of trees and forests, usually through cutting or burning. In South America, more deforestation is caused by cattle ranching than logging. In countries with poor economies, such as Argentina, Brazil, and Uruguay, deforestation is used to open up land for agriculture to meet the demands of the world.

b) The causes of deforestation mainly relate to a competitive global economy, which forces countries to use their own resources for profit. This happens both at a national and international level; people use land for farming and mining purposes, due to its diverse and increasing popularity. Some governments are against deforestation to ensure that they develop industries.

c) The problem is using trees for fuel is only a temporary solution, which causes a long-term problem. When we burn wood, we are left with about 50% ash, which when water is poured over it, carbon is released into the atmosphere. Cutting trees also reduces the amount of oxygen, reducing temperatures and allowing more heat to escape. Deforestation is also bad for the environment because it can affect animals and plants that live in the rainforests. Tropical rainforests hold about one-third of the world's species of animals. When we destroy their habitat, we are destroying them.

d) The problems to predators such as deforestation in addressing our food needs. Deforestation in Central America and other countries makes a huge impact to the rainforests, but, in doing so, there may have been a loss of land for agriculture. As a result, many countries, in particular Costa Rica, will be no longer self-sufficient again.

The Celebration of Diwali

Diwali is known as the 'festival of lights' and is celebrated between mid-October and mid-December. It is one of the most important festivals of the year for Hindus and celebrates the New Year.

Hindu families celebrate Diwali by performing traditional activities together in their homes. Small clay lamps filled with oil are lit to celebrate Diwali. Hindus place them in their windows and in their courtyards. The oil in the lamp signifies the light. The house is cleaned so that Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth, will come to welcome in their homes. Hindus also light firecrackers so that evil spirits will run away.

The Diwali celebration lasts for 5 days. The fourth day is the Hindu New Year. Diwali is celebrated to welcome the return of Prince Rama and his wife, Sita, who were sent to live in a forest and banished for fourteen years. They were ordered to leave their home in Ayodhya by the King.

After a few years Ravana, the ten headed demon, kidnapped Sita and took her to his island of Lanka.

Hanuman, the monkey warrior, helped Rama to rescue his wife. Oil lamps were lit by the people of Ayodhya to guide Rama and Sita safely home.

When Rama and Sita returned home, Rama was crowned king.
